LETTER OF INTRODUCTION

Janet M. Hack, Psy.D., the therapist with whom you are being provided therapy services, has been carefully trained. She is outstanding in the field of psychology as well as in the practice of marriage, family, individual and child therapy. She is working under my supervision.

Dr. Hack has been awarded her degree in clinical psychology.

It is a requirement of the Licensing Boards that you be informed of the following information. Please discuss the Therapeutic Contract with Dr. Hack, and when you each feel you are in agreement, sign the contract. The contract includes:

1. Your understanding of your obligation for payment of services rendered including:
 - a. Specific hourly rate
 - b. Rate for sessions extending beyond an hour
 - c. Cancellation notification policy
2. Your understanding of the limitations of confidentiality

If you have any questions regarding these or other regulations, including services, fees, cancellation and termination policies, I invite you to discuss them with your therapist or with me. The best therapeutic outcome is based on friendly and mutual understanding.

Sincerely,

Anne Bearheart, PhD
